TOMORROW.

His thoughts said, But what of tomorrow?

His Father said, Thus saith the Lord to thee, even thee, Fear not. Fear not, neither be afraid to go forth tomorrow. No evil shall be sent to meet thee.

But the son knew that trouble might be sent to meet him.

His Father said, Before the trouble can meet thee it must pass through the brightness of my encompassing Presence, and passing through that brightness it loseth its darkness. It hath no more any power for evil. Also, as thou knowest well, I will be with thee in trouble.

On this word the son stayed his heart, saying, THE LORD WILL TAKE CARE OF ME. I will trust and not be afraid to go forth to-morrow. I will praise Thee, O Lord, for it is a good thing to sing praises to Thee, yea, a joyful and pleasant thing it is to be thankful. AND HE MARVELLED THAT HE HAD EVER BEEN AFRAID.

(AMY CARMICHAEL)

Quote... There is no failure so great that a Christian cannot rise from it, there is no defeat so final that he cannot convert it into a victory.
