

Does God Exist?

June 18, 2006

Sunday AM 9:30 Bible Study, 10:30 AM Worship, 6:00 PM Worship

John N. Clayton

John N. Clayton was an atheist. Since he did not believe in God, his moral framework and purpose in life were based on his secular worldview. If there is no God, there is no absolute standard of morality. If there is no God, there is no real purpose in life. The individual becomes his own god and decides what is right and wrong. His purpose becomes self-serving. "What's in it for me?" becomes the most important question.

John studied science and made his career as a science teacher in the areas of physics, chemistry, and earth science. It was his study of science that led him out of atheism. He became a firm believer in God because of the design revealed in the universe. John has devoted many years to writing and giving lectures on the evidences for the existence of God. With the support of his loving wife, Phyllis, he founded and continues a program called
